

This concerns Broadband over powerlines (BPL). I suggest that BPL frequency allocations be restricted to unused or vacant portions of the 54-88 mhz range, such as any vacant TV channels. For example, in the Washington DC area this would be channels 3 and 6. This would minimize harmful radio interference from BPL to licenced users of the radio spectrum, such as Amateur Radio and other services.